KROTOSZYN

Krotoszyn County is situated in the southern part of the Wielkopolska Region, on the border with Lower Silesia. It occupies an area of 714 square kilometres and is inhabited by 78,000 people. It has convenient bus and train connections with such Polish cities as Wrocław (80km) and Poznań (100km). The attractions of Krotoszyn County include its history, wondrous natural areas, cultural offerings and unique architecture with a number of historical sights worth visiting. In the town of Krotoszyn one can visit the Market Square with its neo-Renaissance Town Hall, the late-Renaissance Church of St John the Baptist, the baroque palace of the Gałęcki family, the classical church of St Andrzej Bobola, the post-Trinitian baroque church of Saints Peter and Paul with a post-monasterial baroque building occupied by the Regional Museum, and the wooden churches of St Mary Magdalene and St Fabian and Sebastian (more information: www.powiat-krotoszyn.pl/powiat_informacje_en.php5).
